

I'm really not happy about the weakening of the Indiana Privacy Law. We still get phone calls from businesses that if we want to do business with we would call them ourself. I'm one of the don't call me I'll call you if I want your services people and plan to stay that way. This does not make me happy at all. I don't want these people to bother me, if I did I'd call them, they DO NOT need to call me. I think most of Indiana feels the same way, but I can only speak for myself and my husband. I'll just stop answering my phone or I'll get rude and hang up on them. My advice to you is to keep things the way they are.

Thank You
